RADIO DRAMA LIVE! AT HOFSTRA UNIVERSITY FEATURING TWO RADIO PLAYS,
AUGUST 1, 2 AND 3.

Cast Includes B'way Actress Barbara Rosenblat and NPR's Frank Stasio
Show Benefits Student Scholarships; Tickets Available for Studio Audience

Hofstra University, Hempstead, NY... The lost art of radio drama will be revived at Hofstra University in August. The National Audio Theater Festivals and the Hofstra Radio Alumni Association presents "Radio Drama Live!" at the Hofstra University Student Center Theater, August 1, 2 and 3. Executive Producer Sue Zizza has created a program that features two radio dramas:

The Odyssey of Runyon Jones: A classic from the Golden Age of Radio. This is Norman Corwin's 1941 heartwarming comedy about a boy in search of his lost dog, directed by award-winning audio artist George Zarr of New York City. A recorded interview with Norman Corwin about his career and the writing of this play will be presented at every performance.

Sterling Bronson, Space Engineer: Amuck the Rummlylinds. A modern sci-fi parody about the adventures of starship captain in search of a mission, directed by the author, award-winning audio artist Tom Curley of CBS-TV.

The cast includes Barbara Rosenblat, noted Broadway actress (The Secret Garden) and three-time Audie winner; Frank Stasio, National Public Radio anchor; Marssie Mencotti, noted voice and character actress and nominee for Chicago's 2003 "Jeff Award"; and Alan Kalter (prerecorded), announcer for "The Late Show with David Letterman."

All net proceeds from tickets sold will benefit scholarships for students interested in pursuing studies in radio broadcasting and audio production. Tickets are $20, $15 for senior citizens, children and non-Hofstra students. Show times are 8 p.m. Friday; 2 and 8 p.m. on Saturday; and 2 p.m. on Sunday.

For tickets, group rates and more information call the Hofstra Box Office at (516) 463-6644 or call the National Audio Theatre Festivals at (516) 885-8360 for credit card purchases.

###Tickets are available for every performance.

However, each show will have a special theme for a different audience segment:

Friday, August 1, 8 p.m. - Seniors' Night. Seniors will receive a special gift, and guest author Howard Blue will do a signing of his latest book Words at War, about how radio helped the Allies win World War II.

Saturday, August 2, 2 p.m. - Children's Afternoon. Children receive a special gift.

Saturday, August 2, 8 p.m. - National Audio Theater Festivals Members' Night. All NATF members are invited to a special post-performance reception to meet the cast.

Sunday, August 3, 2 p.m. - Hofstra Radio Alumni Afternoon. All HRAA members are invited to a special post-performance reception to meet the cast and take tours of Hofstra's radio facilities.

Bob Mott, recent Diamond Circle member, was honored by The American Academy of Television Arts and Sciences (ATAS) Foundation's Archive of American Television for his work as a sound effect artist and comedy writer in live television. The interview on tape lasted nine hours! His tape, along with the taped interviews of other actors, musicians and technicians, will soon be seen on the internet world -wide for anyone interested in what it was like to work in live television. Bob is hoping that a similar project will be done on behalf of all those wonderful and courageous people that worked in live radio.

Friends of Old-Time Radio Script Contest

The 11th annual script writing contest is now open. This year your half-hour script must be based on the CBS program "You Are There" (1948-50). It assumes that radio was present during great historical moments of the past and CBS reporters are there to witness it and interview participants. (Examples: Columbus sails to the New World, Julius Caesar assassinated, Betsy Ross sews first American flag, Gold discovered at Sutter's Mill, etc.) There's an intro from the studio, then we go to the scene. No commercials as it was a sustaining show.

This can be either drama or comedy, whatever your bent. But please, no spoofs with Jack Benny, Abbott and Costello. That didn't work last time. The script must be ready to produce - type double spaced, large enough for actors to read, all sound cues included (probably no music in this one). Try to keep cast to ten or less, although some actors can double in smaller parts. Obviously, some historical research will be necessary. For further guide re "You Are There" see John Dunning's "On the Air -The Encyclopedia of Old Time Radio".

First prize in the contest is $200, and the script will be performed live at our 2004 convention. Second prize winner, which will not be performed, is $100.

Scripts must be submitted by August 31, 2003 to Dave Zwengler, 319 Plymouth Road, North Brunswick NJ 08902 (732 - 0940 - 7639). Three experienced judges will pick the winning scripts and detailed suggestions for improvements will be sent to non-winners. If you want a primer on preferred page format, send SASE to Mr. Zwengler.

This year's winner, "Maitland at Large" by Jim Cort, will be performed at our October convention.

If you wish to stay at the Howard Johnson, which is also renovated and a half mile from the Holiday Inn, cost per night is also $89.99. There is shuttle service. Call the Holiday Inn-North also for HJ reservation.

If you wish to stay next door at the Sheraton, call 1-800-325-3535.

Better rates might be obtained by calling the 800 numbers of Holiday Inn (1-800-465-4329) or The Howard Johnson (1-800-446-4656) as soon as you can. Also try the internet. Don't mention FOTR at first. Don't forget to try the Sheraton. Try to share rooms with someone. Mention AARP and/or AAA if appropriate.

Seating

Sit where you wish on Thursday and Sunday. On Friday and Saturday, tables will be numbered and will be assigned in advance. Tables sit 10 people. If you wish to reserve a full or partial table, please let me know in advance with whom you would like to sit. Make sure the people with whom you wish to sit are coming. A few people gave me a long list of people to choose from. I can't do this. All those who register at the door or who have no preference will sit where there is room. Table reservations must be made in advance. We expect a larger attendance than usual.

Ads

Ads may be placed in our program book (8 1/2 by 11). This is our 28th year and we will again have an expanded program book with guest biographies and articles. Cost for ads are:

Full Page – 8 1/2 by 11	$90	Half Page – 5 1/2 by 8 1/2 or 4 by 11	$55
Quarter Page – 4 by 5	$35	Two full Pages –	$150

Dealers at our convention may take a 35% discount on the ad. Help support our 28th annual convention.

For our 28th Convention, we are asking members to send in short articles about an OTR topic. E-mailing them to me would be the easiest so I can print them right away. In any case, they must be camera ready. Keep the articles 1 page or less if possible.
